A normal day in Wisconsin goes into high gear when Clair learns that a publisher wants to feature her in a new cookbook The Midwest Chef. Her grumpy husband isn't happy with the situation and their daughter, an artist living in New York City, suddenly shows up with stunning news and a mysterious friend. Arriving for dinner are the hipster editor and his photographer, who have a hidden agenda for the cookbook...let's just say the dinner is full of surprises in this comedy with heart.
