

Congratulations to Our Graduating Class of 2026!

Join us next Sunday, May 17th, as we honor our graduates. We proudly celebrate individuals from our Under the Cross Youth. These graduations represent significant achievements, so let's come together to celebrate their success. We will offer our prayers and best wishes for their futures.

Let's join together to express our support and pride, cheering them on as they embark on new adventures and opportunities. May their journeys be filled with success, joy, and limitless possibilities!
