WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF YOU GOT HIT BY A BUS? (PREPARING FOR LIFE CHANGING EVENTS BY GETTING YOUR STUFF TOGETHER) (131)

Thursdays, 10:30 – 12:00 (6 Classes 2/1 thru 3/7) in Room 19

Tuition $45

Limited to 15

John O'Connor will help the participants understand the information and documents that should be located and assembled to allow spouses and /or children to either handle your affairs should you become incapacitated or settle your affairs upon your passing. The course will lay out a plan for you to follow to prepare for life-changing events. We will cover such areas as emergency contacts, relatives and friends, your professional and medical providers, medical conditions, financial institutions, living expenses, insurance policies, last wishes, and even pet care. An expandable binder will be available for each student to use to collect and store personal documents, $8, payable to instructor.

For your convenience, on Thursdays at noon, bag lunches are available for the six-week semester. The entire lunch package is $72. The lunch will consist of a sandwich/wrap, side, cookie, and bottled water. The menu is available in the Center office. There will be no substitutes and no cancellations/refunds. Lunch packages must be ordered by Wednesday, January 24. Orders can be placed on the C4LL website when you register for your course(s) or in the Center office.

John O'Connor is a retired US Army officer with a bachelor's degree in economics and an advanced degree in management. He was an instructor of military personnel involved in the management of the military pay system. Through his involvement with grief groups, experiences with friends and neighbors and volunteer work with individuals with dementia, he has recognized the need for properly preparing for life changing events. He will take a management approach to give you a plan necessary to organize the information and documents to ease the burden on your spouses and/or children upon your death or incapacitation.
