

AUTUMN CHARCUTERIE BOARD WORKSHOP (151)

Friday 9:30– 11:30, in LEC Lobby (one 2-hour Class 11/18)	Tuition $12	Limited to 15
---	---------------------	---------------

Be inspired to customize your charcuterie board especially for the upcoming autumn season! Charcuterie boards have been the trend in party snacks over the past few years and your instructor Maria Trupia doesn't see it stopping anytime soon! The delicious variety of meats, cheese, crackers, and fruit are favorites your guests will enjoy. Best of all, everyone can select just what they want...a win-win for your fall gatherings. Maria enjoyed meeting and getting to know all her students last season and wanted to offer them a different kind of fun board/tray filled with classic and delicious fall treats. She will show you how to put together a large tray in reds, yellows, golds, and russets. Good news! Each student will take home their own sturdy large and colorful keepsake tray. Learn about the components, apples, honey, nuts, and other treats and how to embellish with small pumpkins, leaves, wheat, herbs, and other seasonal beautiful items. At the end of the class share the contents of this delightful abundant board. with a drink and a sweetie or two. These classes are friendly and informative. This special fall workshop is meant to show that there is no limit to the theme and presentation of charcuterie boards, trays, and/or platters. Sign up, and join in on the fun, as this workshop will sell out early.

There is a required $39 charge for food and materials, payable to the instructor.
