Come From Away is a critically acclaimed, award-winning musical that celebrates humanity, kindness, and the power of community. Based on the true story of Gander, Newfoundland, the musical follows the extraordinary events of September 11, 2001, when 38 planes carrying thousands of travelers were diverted to the small town. Despite cultural differences and language barriers, the people of Gander welcomed the stranded passengers with open arms, music, and heartfelt generosity, turning an ordinary day into an unforgettable story of humanity and resilience. Come From Away is a celebration of connection and community, offering audiences an uplifting reminder that kindness can shine brightest in challenging times. Experience this inspiring story live! Get your tickets now and join a celebration of courage, compassion, and the enduring spirit of Gander in this incredible musical, Come From Away!
